

BREAKTHROUGH

This special award is open to individual entry. It provides the opportunity for high achievers to be acknowledged for leadership excellence.

Bickford's Australia

Leader Award

Aim: To recognise an individual within the South Australian food industry who has a commitment to excellence and who inspires and influences others. They will demonstrate evidence of leadership, creativity and achievement, leading to a shared vision within their own business and across the industry.

Eligibility: An individual working in the South Australian food industry.

Questions (500 words maximum per question)

1. Describe your current role and your recent and current professional and personal development.
2. Outline your significant career achievements to date.
3. Describe your contribution to the South Australian food industry.
4. Describe your future vision for yourself and the industry.

Please provide the names and contact details of two referees.