The Regional Award

Sponsored by Primary Industries and Regions SA

Government of South Australia

Primary Industries
and Regions SA

Aim

To recognise a regional company producing or manufacturing food or beverage products, that has contributed to their regional community and sets a benchmark for excellence.

Eligibility

Regionally located businesses (that is, businesses located outside the Adelaide metropolitan area) who enter for other open award categories in the South Australian Food Industry Awards will be automatically eligible for the Regional Award. Businesses cannot directly apply for this award.

The judges' panel will shortlist candidates and contact these entrants for a further phone interview to decide the winner.

To be eligible for the South Australian Food Industry Awards, the business must be a food or beverage producer, manufacturer or franchisor, or a business providing goods or services to the food and beverage industry, provided that:

- The head office or principal place of business for that business is in South Australia (and if the business is operated by a franchisee, the head office or principal place of business of the franchisor is in South Australia); and
- At least half the expenses of the business are incurred in South Australia.

Please note: Restaurants, cafes, food service and wine businesses are not eligible for this award.
